Effective March 2020
Ninth-generation winemaker Dominique Portet chose the cool climate of aptly named Coldstream in the Yarra Valley as home to the eponymous winery he founded in 2000. It was the culmination of a tenacious search for grape growing terroir to rival that of his native Bordeaux – but also the start of a new chapter in a winemaking story that has its roots in France in the early 1700s.

Now son Ben – generation 10 – heads the winemaking team, firmly observing the central tenets of this young yet historic estate: respect for tradition, understanding of site and an open mind towards contemporary practices that shape wines that are ever more refined and delicious.

The Dominique Portet winery is set in among the beautiful rolling vineyards of the Yarra Valley. It has a Mediterranean atmosphere and provides a window onto the workings of the vineyard and winery.

WINERY AWARDS

"5 Star Winery"
by James Halliday, Australian Wine Companion

AUDP0006-18
Fontaine Chardonnay 2018 $ 48.00

Grape Variety: 100% Chardonnay
The chardonnay is fruit forward with a hint of oak, Med- bodied, with a good balance of acidity and concentration.

AUDP0001-18
Sauvignon Blanc 2018 $ 53.00

Grape Variety: 100% Sauvignon Blanc
It has aromas of white blossom, lime zest, white stone fruits, dry grass and honeycomb. That same array comes through on a palate that is delightfully light on its feet. There’s textural interest from creamy lees and the barrel-fermented parcel, but the overall impression is of delicacy and finesse. The hallmark limey acidity gives a crackle to the stone fruit, citrus and wet-stone notes, which retain great focus through the beautifully balanced finish.

AUDP0001-19
Sauvignon Blanc 2019 $ 53.00

Grape Variety: 100% Sauvignon Blanc
True to the vintage, the Dominique Portet Yarra Valley Sauvignon Blanc 2019 rises from the glass with beguiling promise. It has aromas of white blossom, lime zest, white stone fruits, dry grass and honeycomb. That same array comes through on a palate that is delightfully light on its feet. There’s textural interest from creamy lees and the barrel-fermented parcel, but the overall impression is of delicacy and finesse. The hallmark limey acidity gives a crackle to the stone fruit, citrus and wet-stone notes, which retain great focus through the beautifully balanced finish.
Fontaine Rosé 2018

Grape Variety: 60% Shiraz, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon and 35% Merlot

The wine is a pretty, light salmon pink in colour. It shows floral perfume and sweet, pretty red fruits on the nose, as well as a slight pepperiness. Merlot and Shiraz combine to give the palate a spicy red-berry intensity, while the Cabernet adds a suggestion of blackberries. It has a gentle, creamy mouthfeel, and fine natural acidity draws out the palate to a pleasing, aromatic finish. This is as refreshing, satisfying and moreish a rosé as you could.

Fontaine Cabernet Sauvignon 2018

Grape Variety: 86% Cabernet Sauvignon, 6% Merlot, 5% Cabernet Franc, 2% Petit Verdot and 1% Malbec

Grapes come from a range of warmer vineyards in the northern and southern end of the Yarra Valley. Soils are rocky and hungry, with a clay base and lots of broken sandstone. These north-facing sites are excellent for Cabernet that has clear, juicy, concentrated fruit with soft, silky tannins.

91 points – James Suckling

Cabernet Sauvignon 2016

Grape Variety: 95% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Malbec and 2% Merlot

A layered and alluring on the nose, revealing beautiful vibrancy and bright fresh red fruit with red cherry. Underlying notes of dark berries, zesty blackcurrant and plum provide a lush intensity that is fragrant and delicate, complimented by savoury notes of cedar, liquorice and tobacco. Super fine, chalky tannins offering texture and body suggest this highly aromatic, elegant wine has decades ahead of it, despite the warm vintage. Its vivid palette of flavours ensure this wine is drinking exceptionally well now and will reward cellaring for many years to come, but why wait?

95 points – James Halliday
95 points – The Wine Front

Shiraz Heathcote 2017

Grape Variety: 100% Shiraz

30% whole bunch, 70% whole berry, 15% new oak split between barriques and puncheons. The quality of Heathcote red wines has taken a battering with heat and drought over the past 10 years, so the cool '17 vintage came as a relief. The colour is great, and there’s a savoury/spicy edge to the plum fruit.

94 points – James Halliday
In 1988 Kym, Ang and Bec Tolley joined forces to buy a block of land in Coonawarra and Penley Estate was underway, the amalgamation of a 5th generation wine family Penfold and Tolley. In 2015 Ang and Bec took full ownership of the company. They have made a number of changes, including general manager Michael Armstrong and, even more importantly, appointed Kate Goodman as winemaker. Behind the scenes Ang’s husband David Paxton, one of Australia’s foremost viticulturists, has been working as a consultant, with improvements in vineyard performance already evident.

To create our contemporary Coonawarra wines, we’ve returned to traditional methods of viticulture. We’ve become down to earth (again), hands on and nurturing. It’s a gradual process, one that takes passion, commitment and a lot of hard work. The mark of a good vineyard is its balance – the consistency of the fruit, ripening at the same time. To make this happen, we’ve taken a more natural, holistic approach to vine, incorporating a range of techniques and processes.

For a start, we are returning to hand pruning. While we still use machinery in some of our vineyards, the precision of hand pruning makes a difference to the consistency of the yield and the fruit. Eventually, all our vineyards will be pruned by hand. We have new irrigation and frost protection programmes in place (pretty essential in the frosty Coonawarra) as well as soil cultivation and moisture retention initiatives, because it’s all about the soil and how balanced and nutrient rich it is – we have a programme in place for that too. The worms are loving us at the moment (and so are the good bacteria) – our new viticulture culture is working.

The Hesketh Wine Company is a small, family owned producer of high quality, yet accessible wines. We work with our own growers and process our own wines like traditional wineries. But rather than attempt to be all things to all people from one region, our approach is to remain focused on the individual strengths of different South Australian growing regions.

Specific vineyards – Each wine is either made from a single vineyard or sourced from a small selection of specific vineyards in each region. Fruit comes from both our own vineyards in Coonawarra and the Barossa Valley, as well as from specialised local growers.

Winery – Hesketh wines are made at our facility in the Barossa Valley by our winemakers Keeda Zilm, Andrew Hardy and James Lienert.

House style – Wines are made to a ‘Hesketh’ style, which is based on balance and complexity but more importantly, 'drinkability'. Wines with generous flavours and aromatics, which also retain a sense of place – wines which reflect the vineyards they are grown in.

After managing a B&B in the south of France, Martin and Vivienne Rawlinson were inspired to establish St John’s Road in 2001, with a vision to produce full flavoured, yet elegant, wines which reflect the essence of the Barossa.

The current owners aim to uphold Martin and Vivienne’s vision of producing wines that are not only true to the Barossa, but also the sub districts and vineyards they are grown in.

The St John’s Road ‘Resurrection Vineyard’ is located in the highly regarded Ebenezer sub-district of the Barossa Valley; an area that has long held reputation to produce powerful and soulful reds. The 20Ha site is Shiraz predominant (>90%) with small pockets of Grenache. Added appeal of this particular vineyard comes from the significant diversity present; a substantial variance in vine age, soil depth, aspect and vine selection has provided the winemaking team with an exceptional palette to work with.

The most elevated point of our Resurrection Vineyard sits at 324m, where the soils are shallow and rocky, producing intensely flavoured fruit from low-yielding blocks. Along the northern boundary a striking 15m soil profile can be viewed overlooking the St Kitts Creek, showcasing the vibrant, red Ebenezer dirt impregnated with ironstone. It is within these deep, rich clay soils that our oldest vines thrive: five acres of twisted, gnarly old Shiraz vines planted during the ‘30s Great Depression. We liken the preservation of these old vines to ‘respecting your elders’, with the individual vines cared for year-round by Warwick (Wazza) Murray.

The gentle roll of the Eastern, to South-Western facing slopes provide varying exposure to light and heat during the day, an element of frost protection, and in sections, early ripening vines. These aspects combined add levels of complexity and difference to the St John’s Road wines, showcasing the diversity apparent within the Barossa growing region.

Younger brother Marcel took himself to winemaking school and four years later joined Theo and Alex on the South Island to start making wine from their vineyard. There is strength of character and determination about Giesen brothers who, despite the naysayers, made the bold leap to make wine in Marlborough in the 1980’s. Over the last 30 years they have laid deep roots in the region, developing their own vineyards and simply making wines that people want to drink and that, is all there is to it. It’s not hard to remember the Giesen boys, among a plethora of brands named after bays, hills and stones, they are real. Giesen has walked to its own tried and true beat, remaining at the front of the pack.

Since 2009 Giesen Wines has made a significant investment in organics, which by 2017 has resulted in 11% of the company’s Marlborough vineyards being Certified Organic with BioGro New Zealand. Whilst 11% of our vineyards are certified organic, we are committed to organics philosophy and culture throughout our entire viticulture programme with all of our fruit being sustainably grown.

This is the fourth time Nikolai has been named Winemaker of the Year. He was awarded the title Winemaker of the Year at the Royal Easter Wine Show 2015 and 2013 and in 2014 from the New Zealand International Wine Show.

Located on the east coast of New Zealand, with mountains to the west, Marlborough is one of New Zealand’s premiere wine producing regions. In the heart of the jewel in the region’s crown – the Wairau Valley is Lofthouse vineyard, owned by the Giesen brothers, who have been producing wine for more than three decades.

Lofthouse wine is processed under anaerobic conditions and fermented in relatively cool stainless steel tanks to preserve the fresh vibrant fruit inherent to Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc. The wine was blended, fined, stabilised then filtered before bottling under screwcap.

Grape Variety: 100% Sauvignon Blanc

This wine is pale yellow in colour and exhibits luscious passion fruit and ripe citrus aromas with a hint of dried herb. Gooseberry flavours combine with dry, citrus flavours on a medium bodied palate. Crisp acidity provides length to a refreshing, clean finish.
Cristom Vineyards began a quarter of a century ago as a collaboration between an engineer and a biochemist who each possessed a deep-rooted respect for the land, the natural winemaking process, and Pinot Noir. 25 years later, second-generation winegrower and owner Tom Gerrie leads winemaker Steve Doerner and our tenured viticulture team in tending our Estate vineyards, and producing elegant, dynamic wines, recognizable by our hallmark style of whole-cluster fermentation by native yeasts.

Our winemaking philosophy begins with respect for our land and estate vines. We’re proud to be Certified Sustainable by Low Input Viticulture & Enology (LIVE), both in our winery which we run responsibly, and in our fields, that are thoughtfully and meticulously farmed with a focus on quality.

The four estate Pinot Noir vineyards - Eileen, Jessie, Louise and Marjorie, named for Gerrie family matriarchs - each possess natural variances in soil, elevation and exposition. With minimal intervention during the winemaking process, Tom, Steve and team strive to craft wines that are an honest recording of both the vineyard and the vintage, producing the ultimate expressions of the stellar fruit we’re fortunate enough to work with. Recognized globally as a leading producer in our beloved Willamette Valley, our wines continue to be a unique blend of tradition, modernity and finesse.

Medium ruby colored, the 2016 Pinot Noir Jessie Vineyard is a touch reticent on the nose, opening to broody scents of black cherries and licorice with notes of herbs, Bergamot and grated baking spice with earthy touches of soil and wet leaves. Medium to full-bodied and wonderfully silky in the mouth, it's packed with layers of ripe fruit, spice and earth. A very distinctive nose with a wild array of red berries and cherries and a thread of blue fruit, too. There’s a dried wild-rose perfume and a violet-like thread with subtle, herbal-based notes. Established in 1969, Cuvaison is a Napa Valley estate vineyard and winery that produces Chardonnay and Pinot Noir grown exclusively on its certified sustainable vineyard in Carneros, Napa Valley. Dedicated to a philosophy of producing vineyard-driven wines, Cuvaison employs block by block farming methods and a hand-crafted vineyard-to-bottle winemaking approach. Created from blocks that have been vinified separately by Winemaker Steve Rogstad, Cuvaison wines are consistently balanced and approachable, favoring nuance and complexity over sheer power and ripeness.

Cuvaison has been shaped profoundly by its current owners, the Schmidheiny family of Switzerland who purchased the winery in 1979. When Thomas Schmidheiny’s mother visited the Carneros region in the late 1970’s, she was so taken with the landscape and its potential for winegrowing that she brought a soil sample home to show her family. A year later, Thomas purchased the Carneros estate where Cuvaison now makes its home. In the years since, the family has thoughtfully re-invested all profits in the vineyard and winery, consistently providing the support needed to produce the highest quality grapes and wines. Cuvaison is locally-managed by a seasoned team that includes Dan Zepponi, named CEO in 2016, and Steve Rogstad, who was appointed Winemaker in 2002.

In 2012, Cuvaison was honored by Wine & Spirits as one of the “Top 100 Wineries on the World.”

The 2015 vintage was marked by an early bud break, coming out of a warm, dry winter. Our Cuvaison Estate Pinot offers up an intriguing blend of black plum, wild strawberry, cherry and raspberry fruit against a backdrop of cola, licorice and hint of sassafras. Brandlin is a Napa Valley estate that produces wine from a small, historic vineyard in the Mount Veeder appellation. The wines pay homage to the Brandlin family. As early as the 1870s, the Brandlins settled on these steep, rocky slopes, and became grape growing pioneers in Napa's Mount Veeder region. With over 50 years' of experience, Henry Brandlin staked the family's claim to this estate and planted their own vineyards in 1926.

In 1998 Cuvaision Estate Wines was honored by Henry's son, Chester Brandlin, with rights to purchase Brandlin Vineyard. Respectfully maintaining the integrity of the estate, only a fraction of the land has been planted to vineyards carefully designed to honor the integral beauty of the property. Glens of old oak trees and sustainable viticultural practices support natural biodiversity and abundant wildlife.

"We brought to Brandlin Vineyard all the lessons of Cuvaision Estate Wines' 38 years of viticulture - great care in the study of sun exposures and soil types, and profound respect for the environment. Our intention is to honor the Brandlin family with a namesake vineyard that produces intense and elegant Cabernet Sauvignon."
Established in 1936, Vina Luis Felipe Edwards is undeniably one of the most progressive wineries in Chile.

Always keen to invest in land, technology and people, the Colchagua Valley based operation sits nestled amongst the Alamos trees, separated from the colossal Andes by the smaller San Fernando ridge. The winery produces over 1 million cases (9lt) per year and exports to over 40 countries, making it a major global player. Luis Felipe Edwards remains a family run operation, allowing greater control to ensure that the LFE brand name is synonymous with quality and traditional family values.

Bordeaux luminaries Hubert de Bouard and Bruno Prats were, with Lowell Jooste of Klein Constantia, founders of this ambitious estate in one of Stellenbosch’s quieter corners. Kanokkop is renowned for its red wines, with Pinotage making up 50% of all plantings, Cabernet Sauvignon 35%, Merlot 7.5% and Cabernet franc the rest.

Our Pinotage vines have been retained as bush vines to provide optimum sunlight, which allows for maximum ripeness. These vines were some of the first commercially planted Pinotage to be established in the Cape and most are over 50 years old.

Hardly any irrigation is needed due to our ideal soil type and location.

Optimum ripeness plays a major role in producing good red wine and on the estate a careful check is done to ensure that the grapes are picked at perfection.

Winemaking at Kanokkop
Winemaking at Kanokkop follows the age-old tradition of being made in open concrete fermenters, but with a slight difference, the tanks are wide and shallow, rather high and deep. This ensures maximum skin contact. Only French Nevers barrels are used for breeding, with the exception of a few experimental barrels each year.
All cellaring, bottling and labelling is done on Kanokkop.

For almost 500 years, the Philipponnat family has left its mark on the soil of the Champagne region. Generations of men and women have cultivated the land at Ay, the family’s home since the time of April le Philipponnat who owned vines at Le Leon in 1522. Philipponnat’s legacy has been passed down through the ages, producing a long line of men and women who are still today the custodians of centuries-old philosophy. Each one of them takes great care to pass on the expertise that they themselves inherited from their predecessors. There is an enduring family spirit and the team work had to craft wines in keeping with the House’s values: individuality, excellence, generosity and humility.

Philipponnat’s 20 hectares of vines, situated at the heart of the Champagne wine-growing area in Ay, Mareuil-sur-Ay and Avenay, are classified Premier and Grand Cru. Philipponnant works to preserve these precious and fragile, centuries-old terroirs, by using natural methods to work on the soil, hoeing by hand and ploughing with horses. The House has found the best possible way to renew its traditions while perpetuating the best they have to offer. Emphasis is put on conservation and meeting challenges to unceasingly improve the quality of wines.

Light gold in colour. An intense, floral nose, with notes of fruit blossom, cherry, elderflower and hints of violet. Clos des Goisses 2009 $ 399.00

Grape Variety: 61% Pinot Noir and 39% Chardonnay
Bright, nose of lemon and white stone fruit that is layered with the bready, honeyed complexity from the lees ageing. The palate is pure in citrus fruit, with an open and creamy mousse that adds a savoury, nutty harmony to the riper citrus and white strawberry notes. Through the mid palate refreshing acidity tightens the fruit core and gives real mineral precision to the wine.

The 2010 Clos des Goisses shows a distinctly tropical, exotic profile that is unusual in Clos des Goisses. Candied orange peel, passionfruit, burnt sugar, mint and yellow flowers all meld together in the glass. Lush fruit, low-ish acid and soft contours add to the wine’s soft, open-knit feel. Time in the glass brings out more lifted, perfumed notes that add to the wine’s overall appeal. Two-thousand-ten presented significant challenges in the vineyard, including high disease pressure that required quite a bit of sorting. The blend is 55% Pinot Noir and 45% Chardonnay (a bit more Chardonnay than normal), while production is just 5,000 bottles. Clos des Goisses has an extraordinary track record, so ordinarily I would not suggest opening wines young, but the 2010 is a rare exception. That said, it needs 1-2 hours of air to show at its best at this early stage of its life.

Samazeuilh & Cie, specialized in the trading and promoting of Bordeaux fine wines in the world, is managed by Xavier Milhade. The Milhade family has been commercialising authentic and traditional Bordeaux wines since 1938, founded by Xavier’s grandfather in Galgon. From 1947, the family acquired several chateaux in Bordeaux.

Château Recougne is hundred years old and had won some silver and gold medals back in the XIX century, and belongs to the same family since 1938. The winemakers and Xavier Milhade and Marc Milhade (father and son, owners of the château), helped by Alain Raynaud. The wine ages remarkably well. The vineyard is 5km from Fronsac, 10km from Libourne and 20km from Saint Emilion. It is right in the heart of the best area for production of the appellation “Bordeaux Superieur”.

Château Boutisse is the Milhade flagship estate, purchased in 1996. It is located in the commune of Saint Christophe de Bardes, one of the top communes in AC St-Emilion. It is a relatively large estate for St-Emilion with 23 hectares, mainly planted with Merlot. Huge investments have been poured into the vineyards since 1996 with several parcels of vines being completely replanted. Château Boutisse possesses excellent terroir; when the soil was ripped and prepared for planting, large chunks of the recherché limestone were visible under the chalky clay topsoil. Furthermore, certain parcels have excellent southern exposure whilst others are planted on gentle slopes.

Château Sergant is situated on a plateau, located West of the village of Lalande de Pomerol. The vineyard covers 21 hectares. The very qualitative terroir mainly consists of sand and gravels. Thanks to this unique terroir, Château Sergant develops powerful and complex wines, with an intense colour. The ageing in oak barrels gives elegance and complexity to this exceptional wine. To produce the best wine the cellar are equipped with modern equipment, including temperatures controlled.

A new ageing cellar has been built to age the wine in new oak barrels. Since 2011, M Hubert de Bouard, the owner of the famous Château Angélus, is the consultant for the Château. He contributes greatly to the improvment of wine quality.

Domaine Weinbach was established in 1612 by Capuchin monks, enthralled by the beauty of the setting and the quality of the soil. The land itself had been planted with vines since before the year 1890. In 1898, it was acquired by the Faller brothers who left it to their son and nephew, Théo. Théo Faller was a prominent figure in Alsace winegrowing and an ardent defender of quality wine production. He developed, expanded and enhanced Domaine Weinbach. Colette, Catherine and Laurence Faller and their team have pursued the family’s passion for the great wines of Alsace and its unrelenting commitment to delivering excellence.

The wines are made in the vineyards – with the primary aim is to grow the highest quality grapes, the only way to craft truly great wines. Domaine Winebach is “propriétaire-récoltant” which means that they only use their own grapes and 100% estate grown and bottled.

Biodynamic methods were started in 1998 on a third of the vineyards and gradually extended to all the vineyards as of the 2005 vintage. Before that Weinbach vineyards had been cultivated organically for the previous 20 years. Biodynamic viticulture aims to bring balance and forces of life to the soil and the vines. The exchanges that take place between the root and the foliage systems allow the soils characteristics to be transferred to the grapes, increasing their minerality, complexity, the quality of their flavors and the expression of our terroirs. The grape production has both the "organic/biologique" Ecocert certification and the “biodynamics/biodynamie” Demeter label since 2010.

Since 2016, Catherine has lead the estate winery with her sons, Eddy and Théo.

Alain Brumont has rehabilitated old terroirs left abandoned for nearly 50 years. Virgin terroirs free of fertilizer and chemical products too often used in winegrowing. Alain Brumont wished to start over with terroirs free of chemical substances.

Alain Brumont is always in search of new terroirs, a true grape variety tamer who has durably changed the aspect of wines in South-West France and has given back nobility to the Tannat, King of the Madiran grape varieties. His passion for his region with its great terroirs and rediscovered grape varieties has made him one of the most famous winegrowers in France. He has been awarded numerous international prizes, which have placed him on the same level as the Bordeaux, Bourgogne and Côte Rôtie wines. His secret? Adapt each grape variety to the best terroirs. “I understand each terroir”, he stipulates. And quite rightly so, as he is the only winegrower today to own 100% of the Madiran Grand Cru Appellation. This adaptation of the wine in function of each terroir together with his vinification talent have allowed him to acquire 4 different wine philosophies: Montus, Bouscassé, Torus and Gascogne.

A great tribute from a wine grower with exceptional standards of which Alain Brumont is very proud, as it illustrates the perfect timing with which Alain Brumont works his vineyard. Brumont vineyards are the expression of exceptional terroirs and very old outstanding local grape varieties.

Brought by one of Jean Paul DAUMEN's ancestors in 1905, the estate of the Vieille Julienne privileges initially the sale in bulk with trade, the first bottling being reserved for the family and the friends.

During this period, it is in the vines that the efforts are concentrated. Thanks to the massale’s selection, selected on the already planted parcels of <lieu-di Clavin> the majority of their old vines (of today) are planted. Bottling began toward the end of the 60’s, at this time. Maxime DAUMEN renovates the cellar and buys new “foudres”.

From years to years and father to son, the estate grow up. It's in 1990 that Jean Paul DAUMEN joined the domaine and continue the traditions. Convinced that what is essential is the vine and the soil, he decides to choose and ecological culture, translated by the limitation of the treatments on the vines, the abandonment of fertilizer and chemicals products. The climatic conditions, the sunning, the atmospheric pressures, the effects of the moon and the planets, are as many parameters that seems obvious to him to take in consideration. In leaving, of course, ‘the time to the time’.

Today, the wines of Vieille Julienne are produced on about 10 hectares on the most northern part of the appellation Châteauneuf du Pape and 5 hectares of Côtes du Rhône on the <lieu-dit Clavin>.

The Rivetti family story begins in the 1890s, when Giovanni Rivetti, grandfather of the three Rivetti brothers, Carlo, Bruno and Giorgio, left Piedmont for Argentina. Like many Italians of that time, he dreamed of returning rich and a powerful man, perhaps even one day able to make a great wine in his homeland. He never did, though his son, Giuseppe (nicknamed Pin) did. Pin married Lidia, bought vineyards and began to make wine. In 1977 the family took up residence at LA SPINETTA (top of the hill) in Castagnole Lanze. It was the heart of the Moscato d’Asti country, home of a rather light and simple dessert wine. But the Rivettis believed that Moscato had the potential for greatness and set out to prove it by making Moscato Bricco Quaglia and Biancospino.

Eventually though the family’s vision was even grander. In 1985 LA SPINETTA made its first red wine, Barbera Cà di Pian. After this many great reds followed: In 1989 the Rivettis dedicated their red blend Pin to their father. In 1995 they started to make their first Barbaresco, Gallina. In 1996 and 1997 the Barbarescos Starderi, Barbera d’Alba Gallina and Barbaresco Valeirano follow. In 1998 premiered the Barbera d’Asti Superiore.

Delicate attack with an overwhelming taste power that follows. The wine is actually many times too young to drink now, but the wine is already so tempting that it is not easy to stay away from it. The more oxygen is absorbed in the mouth, the more solid and firm the wine appears to be. What a solid matter! Despite that, the wine remains delicate. Sizzling long finale, rich in variety, the wine is simply not easy to get out of.

A gorgeous expression that embraces the fullest, most gorgeous and abundant side of the Nebbiolo grape. This warm vintage Barbaresco pushes all of the right buttons. The wine excels in terms of texture and intensity. Candied cherry and blackberry syrup emerge from the nose with dark spice, leather and moist chewing tobacco. Barolo Campé DOCG 2006

Grape Variety: 100% Nebbiolo

A deep, translucent red, opens with a captivating bouquet of roses, spices, flowers and cherries, all of which resonate on the palate. It turns muscular in the glass, with powerful tannins that frame the expressive, generous fruit. There is plenty of richness and concentration, yet without the over-ripeness and excessive oakiness of past vintages. Smoke, tar and herbs are just some of the nuances that come to life as the dense fruit provides a wonderful foil to the tannins on the finish.

Grape Variety: 100% Moscato

This fruity, lovely, fresh and light Moscato pearls beautifully light yellow in the glass. The structure is harmonious, soft and quite full, the smell of the fruit is precisely noticeable, in addition there are spicy notes of nutmeg and vanilla as well as a hint of honey notes.

Domenico Clerico’s small estate is situated in Monforte d’Alba, right in the heart of Barolo. Domenico Clerico is one of the most respected names in all Barolo, and his wines are renowned for both winemaking of the highest quality and for their exceptional expression of terroir, derived from outstanding vineyard holdings in four of the greatest crus of Monforte: Ginestra, Bussia, Pajana and Mosconi.

Domenico commenced production in 1979, following a brief engagement in the olive oil business, concentrating his efforts on single-vineyard expressions. Interestingly, like many of the modernist persuasion, Clerico began in traditional mode, utilizing the hallmark vessels of the traditionalists, Slavonian oak casks, as they were readily available to him.

The transition to barrique took place subsequent to 1990 and whilst his initial barrique regime for Baroli featured equal proportions of new and used French barrels, for a brief period of time, Clerico employed new barrique exclusively for all of his Barolos. He soon moderated these absolute tendencies, with new barrels now constituting between 35 and 40 percent of his ageing vessels.

Owner Domenico Clerico is one of the key proponents of the modernist movement in the winemaking process of Barolo, creating more round, fruity wines. He believes that the grape, rather than the production processes, is the key to quality wine and passionately advocates the importance of the land in wine-making. This explains his concentration on single-vineyard wines as they allow the character of the land to shine.

Barolo DOCG 2002

Grape Variety: 100% Nebbiolo

Rich ruby. Clerico’s 2002 Barolo is a sleek, stylish wine, displaying notes of spices, herbs, licorice, tar and modest fruit on a somewhat lean, compressed frame with good overall complexity but hard, green tannins. That said, this blend of the best fruit Clerico was able to salvage from his parcels in Ginestra and Mosconi is among the best wines of the very difficult 2002 vintage and is one of the few wines which may offer some surprises down the road. Judging by this producer’s efforts in other similarly ‘small’ vintages it should drink well until at least age 15.

👉🏻- Gambero Rosso Guide
This important estate is one of the best known Piedmont wineries in Italy and the world, with over 40 hectares of vineyards that include prestigious crus like Cannubi and Sarmassa. The precious work mapped out by Cavalier Felice Abbona was continued with the commitment by his successor Commendator Pietro Emilio Abbona, and today by Anna and Ernesto.

Anna and Ernesto Abbona – the 5th generation – firmly believe in the original and distinguished wines produced in this region, characterized by a number of highly prestigious native vines and a unique soil composition, with amalgams of clay, limestone marl, bluish marl, tuff, sandstone and sand. Through its great, historical human experience, Marchesi di Barolo has been and still is a faithful exponent of the diversity of the land and its native vines, while rigorously respecting and preserving the typicality of its products. All this is achieved by using grapes that come from estate vineyards and from contributing vintners selected over the years, favouring optimum position and the ability to maintain individual vineyards.

Grape Variety: 100% Nebbiolo
Marchesi di Barolo has harnessed the best attributes of the vintage to make the 2010 Barolo Riserva. The wine offers elegance and grace, but it also shows strong determination to push it forward over the palate. It opens to a bright garnet color with aromas of dried berry, licorice, campfire smoke and balsam herb. Past editions are perhaps more accessible in character, but this wine is more austere instead. It should evolve slowly over the next ten years.

Contratto was founded in 1867 by Giuseppe Contratto and winery is known as the oldest producer if sparkling wine in Italy. In fact, the “Metodo Classico” 1919 Contratto Extra Brut was the first vintage sparkling wine ever made in the country. The winery has a long, distinguished history. At the turn of the 20th century, its wines were leaving Canelli for destinations all over the world (predominantly to royal houses), and Contratto was the personal supplier to the Vatican as well as to the Italian Royal Family. Awards and medals from international exhibitions and contests of the time emphasize why the name of Contratto has long been synonymous with prestige and quality in the world of sparkling wine.

Contratto was acquired by La Spinetta in June 2011. The high-quality Contratto classic-method sparkling wines are the perfect complement to La Spinetta’s wine range, spanning the distance from Piedmont to Tuscany with quite excellent results. Ably supported by his family, Giorgio Rivetti is the man who drives forward an estate that has since its earliest days as a Moscato producer has always shown ambition, far-sightedness and clear direction.

With the release of Vermouth Rosso and Bianco, Americano and Fernet this Winter, Contratto continues to connect to its past glory.

"These products at one point were part of Contratto's core production and were exported all over the world! Considering today's trend in cocktails, which include artisinal bitters and sparkling wine, we intend to make Contratto's history part of today's fashion" says Giorgio Rivetti.

The original recipe from the early part of the 19th century of Contratto Vermouth is based on a combination of white wine fortified with Italian brandy and more than 50 delicately-infused premium natural herbs, spices, roots and seeds. This traditional process is again used to create a sophisticated elixir and a complex and well balanced boutique aperitif that will make any Vermouth based cocktail an exceptional experience.

~ VERMOUTH ~

Under the category Vermouth fall aromatized and fortified wines, that are flavored with various botanicals, such as herbs, seeds, roots, flowers, tree barks and spices. The modern versions of the beverage were first produced in 1757 in Turin. Vermouth was consumed as a medicinal libation until the later 19th century when it became an important ingredient in many of the famous first classic cocktails, such as the Martini, the Manhattan, and the Negroni. In addition to being consumed as an aperitif or cocktail ingredient, vermouth is also used as a substitute for wine, herbs and spices in cooking.

~ AMERICANO ~

Americano is another version of a vermouth and is also based on white wine. Just like the Vermouth, Americano draws from much the same pool of botanicals, and their classification or style is a question of the intent behind the proprietary formulation. Contratto in the beginning of the 19th century began producing Americano Bianco and Rosso, that compared to the Vermouths, were more sweet and therefore were more appealing to the American palate. Americano can come in various colors, such as deep red, straw or even clear (colorless). Americanos serve a similar function to Vermouths: they are excellent aperitifs on their own, and they make fine components of mixed drinks.

Over the last few years, Moscato d’Asti has exploded in popularity. Castiglione Tinella, in the province of Cuneo, between Langhe and Monferrato Asti is ranked among the best for the production of the Muscat grape variety. Redento Dogliotti founded the company in the 1940s, selling grapes from their vineyards to big industries producing Moscato d’Asti, a very common practice in those days. Then came a huge leap for the Dogliotti family.

In the late 1970s, the son Romano Dogliotti began to invent his own Moscato, bottling and selling it. This time as Moscato d’Asti La Caudrina DOCG. A Moscato of new quality was born. They were one of the first independent producers of Moscato d’Asti. La Caudrina was and still is today a producer of essential wine, clean and simple as it should be. This has resulted in a credibility not only for the Dogliotti family but for an appellation.

Typical wine for all meals, it goes well with starters and first courses and second courses, excellent with traditional bagna cauda.
Our main objective is to preserve the quality of our grapes, exalting the delicacy and elegance of Roero’s soils, rich in sand and mineral elements.

The wine-making procedure mirrors our progress in understanding and interpreting every single vineyard, such as the harvesting moment, temperatures and days of maceration, wood type and dimensions, different materials for the refining of the wine and alternative closure systems.

The screw cap has been adopted by Correggia farm since 2008, after Luca's honeymoon to Australia. Here Luca tasted different wines from Australia and New Zealand sealed with this closure system so different from our culture but extremely effective. It is not just for simple wines with a rapid turnover, but also for more complex wines.

The experimentation with our production method started in 2009 and was gradually applied to the bottling process. 2011 saw the purchase of a screw capping machine and the release of the first 5000 official bottles.

2012 was a pivotal year with a change in the DOCG wine production regulations and the authorization to use the screw cap also for Roero wines.

This wine reminds me of the possibility to dream, to go beyond appearance and to foresee what the future can bring. When I first saw the vineyard it was unrecognisable, abandoned, wild; it had been neglected for year even decades. But then I saw it through Matteo’s eyes: beautiful, thriving, fruitful and adorned by Nebbiolo’s grapes sparkling in the sunlight. That vineyard was first of all a dream of a man, it was firmly and passionately desired and now it is praised by wine lovers. I feel honoured to have seen it at its very beginning, when I had to use the eyes of my imagination. Founded in 1996 by Bruno Sartori, Roccolo Grassi is one of the new faces in Valpolicella, despite the fact that the operation has been active for more than ten years. Francesca and Marco Sartori took over the family winery and turned it upside down, making significant changes in the vineyards, wines and procedures. Their wines are respectful of local traditions, both in types produced and in the grapes they raise, while the style is sturdy and impressively multi-layered. The vineyards part trained to pergola and part to Guyot, occupy the level areas around the cellar as well as slopes in the nearby hills.

MASCIARELLI Tenute Agricole was established in 1981 from the entrepreneurial intuition of Gianni Masciarelli, a symbol of Italian wine and protagonist of the success of modern wine production in Abruzzo. The beating heart of the winery is in San Martino sulla Marrucina, in the province of Chieti, and includes about 300 acres of vineyards and olive groves, lying between 13 municipalities in all 4 provinces of Abruzzo.

Wine production - while also having a small production of extra virgin olive oil - now has 18 labels and five product lines: Classic Line, Gianni Masciarelli, Villa Gemma, Marina Cvetic, and Castello di Semivicoli, with an annual production of more than 2.5 million bottles.

In the constant and renewed work for innovation, but with respect for the environment and tradition, Masciarelli inaugurated, after a long restoration, Castello di Semivicoli, a seventeenth-century baronial mansion, which is now a Relais de Charme in the vineyards, a driving force of wine tourism in the area.

Ruggeri is certainly one of the best known and highly regarded operations in the world, with its Valdobbiadene based activity spanning 60 years. Today, Guistino and Isabella Bisol work alongside their father Paolo in running a winery that produces over 1,000,000 bottles a year and is a reference for the entire designation. Their strength, alongside perfect cellar management, lies in their tightly consolidated ties with more than 100 growers, who supply the grapes for the entire production, under the winery’s direction.

Ruggeri owns a small vineyard of Cartizze and 20 hectares on the nearby Montello, 12 of them are cultivated with Pinot Grigio and Glera (traditionally called Prosecco). About 1 hectare is dedicated to the growing of Recantina, an ancient and authochtonous red grape variety which was recovered thanks to the hard work of cooperation with the Istituto Sperimentale Per la Viticoltura di Conegliano (School of Viticulture of Conegliano).

Castello di Querceto and the lands surrounding it are places full of history and atmosphere. Once the castle rose in a strategic and defensive position like a sentinel on the “Via Cassia Imperiale”, one of the main roman roads built by the Emperor Adriano in the 123 A.C.

From 1897 the castle is property of the François family which moved to Tuscany during the XVIII century from France, as one of its members was assigned to the Granducato di Toscana. Among the members of the François family we can find very important men as the mathematician Giuseppe and the archaeologist Alessandro.

At the beginning of the last century, Carlo François bought the estate and turned it from a country residence into an agricultural farm, starting immediately to play an important part in the wine world: in the 1911 it won its first international enological prize and in 1824, it was one of the 33 founded members if the “Consorzio del Vino Chianti Classico”. In the old cellars, there are bottles dating back to the first vintages of the 20th century.

In 1978 Alessandro, Carlo’s grandson, entered in estate management starting a deep change. He began turning the farm from an individual property into a joint stock company and continued with a big program of investments concerning the agricultural and the industrial part.

An estate this size was actually never planned. Just ten years ago, the Rivetti brothers would not have dreamt to run a Tuscan winery this important and big. But if one Domino stone gets into motion, the others fall and the movement is difficult to stop… The first stone was tipped over by Giorgio Rivetti, whose philosophy of only using indigenous varieties, made him severely criticize his Tuscan winemaking colleagues. Giorgio did not understand why in Tuscany the producers were ripping out beautiful old Sangiovese vineyards in order to make space for young Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah.

Most wanting to serve a global taste market. Often these discussions ended in verbal fights. During one of these disagreements, one Tuscan producer challenged Giorgio by accusing him that he can just talk and criticize.

The history of the Frescobaldi family starts over a thousand years ago and is closely connected with the history of Tuscany. At the high point of medieval Florence, the Frescobaldis spread their influence as bankers, earning the title of treasures to the English crown. A little later, with the flowering of the Renaissance, they became patrons of major works in Florence, such as the construction of the Santa Trinita bridge and the Basilica of Santo Spirito.

The family has always looked to develop and celebrate the diversity of Tuscany’s terroir. Being proud owners of some of the greatest vineyards in this region they have always sought to maintain the identity and autonomy of each property.

FRESCOBALDI represents the true diversity of Tuscany and its six estates, Nipozzano, CastelGiocondo, Pomino, Ammiraglia, Castiglioni and Remole, are all located in the most suitable areas for the production of fine wines.

The Frescobaldi name carries with it the on-going responsibility of cultivating the best of Tuscan diversity, through:

- Sustainable cultivation of the land to produce fine wines which perfectly represent and fully illustrate the diversity of our family estates.
- Communicating and promoting the culture of Tuscany and its different territories, through our Estates, our wines and specific value-enhancing projects

The estates of Castello di Nipozzano and Castello di Pomino were the first in Tuscany to receive PEFC certification (the international ‘Programme for the Endorsement of Forest Certification’) which guarantees sustainable management of our forests.

The castle of Pomino is found in the Apennine mountains to the east of Florence set in a charming landscape of chestnut and fir trees. Its vineyards are placed at the highest altitudes in Tuscany, up to 737 metres, and enjoy a fresh and well-ventilated microclimate. Here, in 1855 grape varieties were introduced that were unusual at that time such as Chardonnay and Pinot Nero. After a century and a half, these varieties have found their ideal habitat and produce wines of extraordinary elegance, finesse and minerality. In 1983 the wines of Pomino were granted their own DOC, or controlled designation of origin.

CASTELLO DI NIPOZZANO (FRESCOBALDI WINERY) (certified sustainable) Tuscany - Italy

The ancient defensive stronghold of Florence from the year 1000, the castle of Nipozzano is the most celebrated and historic property of the Frescobaldi family. According to popular belief Nipozzano means “without a well” - testimony to the area's lack of water and ideal circumstances for the cultivation of grapevines. The first documentation about the renowned wines of Nipozzano dates from the Renaissance when great artists such as Donatello and Michelozzo Michelozzi regularly purchased wine from the estate. A unique feature of the territory is attributed to the foresight of an ancestor of the Frescobaldi family who, in 1855 invested 1,000 florins to begin the cultivation of varieties previously unknown in Tuscany such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. After more than a century of patient care, these magnificent vines produce the great wine of the estate, Mormoreto.

The castle of Nipozzano and the winery are found east of Florence in the heart of the prestigious territory of Chianti Rufina on the mountainous side that overlooks the valley of the river Arno. Thanks to the perfect balance of altitude, soil and a cool, ventilated microclimate, the varietes enjoy ideal conditions for perfect growth, and produce wines of harmonious character and great longevity. The vineyard of Mormoreto is the best example of the exclusive marriage of nature and the work of man, an extraordinary terroir where the breezes that sweep across the vines create a ‘murmur’ among the leaves, a characteristic that inspired the name of the vineyard and of the wine.

A striking purple, dense but brilliant, greets the eye. On the nose, emphatic spice aromas, predominantly cinnamon and clove, emerge immediately, with bright redcurrant adding to the complexity and subtle notes of toasty oak further enriching the broad spectrums of aromatics. A smooth fabric of dense tannins immediately impresses on the palate, and as Mormoreto steadily expands, a firm acidity nicely complements a body that is solid but not over-powerful. The 2008 vintage of Mormoreto shows a luminous ruby red, deep near-opaque, with purplish highlights at the rim. The nose, characteristically heady and insistent, opens to emphatic impressions of wild red berry fruit and spice, initially a complex mosaic of wild blackberry, blueberry, and dark cherry, plus dried plum and dates, further enriched with subtle notes of sweet violets and sweetbriar. These aromas are lifted by spicier notes of vanilla, cocoa powder, and roast espresso, interleaved with pungent nuances of balsam and chlorophyll. Fine-grained, silky tannins, already well inserted into the structure, contribute to the ultra-smooth mouth feel and overall sensation of warmth, while its vibrant acidity adds to the exquisite balance of all of its components. The almost-endless finish is laced with tasty, aromatic fruit.

Property of the family since the 11th century, Castiglioni is the point of origin of wine production for the Frescobaldi. Documentation indicates that wines were being produced here as early as 1300. The estate extends along the ancient Via di Castiglioni, built by the Romans to unify northern Tuscany and Rome. The area was already famous in those times for the quality of its agricultural harvests and was for centuries at the center of heavy trade traffic and chosen as the site for luxury Roman villas. The coat of arms of the Frescobaldi family, with the crown, the shield and three fortresses, represents Castiglioni as well, in remembrance and recognition of the 700 years of wine-making history which began here at this very estate.

Castiglioni is placed among the hills to the southwest of Florence in Val di Pesa. The fertile and varied soils are composed of both rock and clay, ideal conditions for the cultivation of the elegant Sangiovese, as well as for the robust and vivacious Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc. All of the vineyards on the estate enjoy a warm and dry microclimate with afternoon breezes that arrive from the Tyrrhenian Sea. Here the grapes mature more rapidly and completely giving the wines notes of intense fruitiness, a marked smoothness and a refined structure.

The Mocali estate, acquired by the Ciacci family (distant relations to Ciacci Piccolomini) in the 1950s, is a setting of natural Tuscan beauty where vineyards and olive groves alternate with oak and pine forests. This harmony of man and nature comes through in the delicious, ripe and balanced wines produced here, available at prices that are incredibly low when compared to those of the more established producers of Montalcino.

The wines are particularly approachable when young, well-structured with ample body and an elegant, minerally character distinct to this growing area. The Rosso "I Piaggioni" is one of the best values on the market - simply delicious Sangiovese at an excellent price. Situated to the southwest of Montalcino at an altitude of 300-350 meters above sea-level on the slopes facing Castiglione del Bosco, the Mocali estate is comprised of 32 hectares, 6 of which are specialized vineyards (5 Hectares of Sangiovese grosso), and 4 dedicated to olive groves. As over half of the estate is covered by a vegetation characteristic to the hill on which Montalcino stands, the vineyards and olive groves alternate with a landscape of woodland of ilex, oak and arbutus. The soil is rendered highly mineral; salt owing to the presence of marl and limestone. Not being overly large, the Mocali estate lies under family management with the consultation of an expert oenologist.

Falkenstein was born from the desire to Franz and Bernadette Pratzner who in 1989 decided to devote himself exclusively to viticulture. Franz Pratzner, winemaker of few words but full of ideas, following its wines lovingly, as if they were children, each with a different character. Accompanying them in the cellar with great passion by choosing the path suited to fully express their potential and then in their development process until they are old enough to fend for themselves. His wife Bernadette prefers the contact with nature and spends most of his time taking care of the vineyards on the Sonnenberg slopes near Naturno: 12 hectares of vines, dry soil and ancient rocks suited to viticulture despite the dizzying slopes between 600 and 900 meters above sea level.

When the Capaldos and Ercolinos founded Feudi di San Gregorio in 1986, their efforts did indeed garner a lot of notices – almost all good, signaling a new dawn for the wines of Campania.

Feudi di San Gregorio is enjoying a second childhood. The Sorbo Serpico operation that turned Irpinia’s and southern Italy’s wine world on its head is currently celebrating it quarter century but the old pioneering spirit of the early days still burns and the bond with the territory is even stronger. It’s all down to Chairman Antonio Capaldo and the technical expertise of Pierpaolo Sirch, whose new direction is clear in a range of whites that has never before been so well defined in style or varietal character.

Cantina del Taburno, located on the slopes of Mount Taburno, belongs to the "Consorzio Agrario di Benevento" (Agricultural Consortium of Benevento). The Consortium was established in 1901, and it had an extremely important role in the development of agriculture in the Sannio area. The winery was built in 1972 in Foglianise. It is a point of reference for viticulture, due to its philosophy and for its positive impact on the economy of the area. The grapes vinified at Cantina del Taburno are grown in vineyards (of an extension of approximately 600 hectares) standing within the area of the towns on the slopes of Mount Taburno: Foglianise, Torrecuso, Vitulano, Campoli del Monte Taburno, Castelpoto, Apollosa, Bonea, Montesarchio, Ponte, Tocco Caudio, Paupisi and Benevento.

The ecosystem of the vines in this area is quite unique due to the type and exposure of the soils, to the particular kind of climate, to the grape varietals and to the agricultural practices. The hills with clayey and Marley-calcareous soils, the mild winters with regular rainfall between October and March, the dry and warm summers concur to create extremely favourable conditions for high quality viticulture.

The history of Bodegas Muga begins in 1932, when the estate was created by Isaac Muga Martínez and his wife, Auro Caño, both descendants of local winemaking families. The pair established themselves in the centre of Haro, a town at the west end of the Rioja Alta region. Isaac always intended to move nearer the railway station, some considerable distance outside of the town, positioning himself alongside the many venerable bodegas that are located there, such as La Rioja Alta and the Compañía Vinícola del Norte de España, but he never survived to see the move completed.

He died in 1969, leaving the estate to his three children who oversaw Isaac’s envisaged relocation, which included the construction of a new bodegas topped off with a tower. The cellars include not only the usual fermentation and ageing rooms, but also a coöpery, providing the family with a constant supply of oak barrels, which are central to the Muga style.

Cava Conde de Haro 2016

Grape Variety: Viura (90%) and Malvasía (10%)

The first impression in the glass is of practically no oxidation, with bright yellow-green hues. The foam is dense and persistent, providing an inkling of its structure in the mouth. Looking at the centre of the glass we can see a uniform line of microscopic bubbles rising to the surface. The nose is dominated by tangy fruit and floral aromas. In the background we find fermentative notes from the wine’s transformation in the bottle (honey, vanilla, liqueur). Honeyed yet fresh in the mouth, thanks to its significant acidity. The combination of fruit, acidity and fine lees results in a surprising sensation of fullness that invites one to continue tasting it. The fruity notes return in the aftertaste, with predominant spices that, for several seconds, leave a very pleasant memory.

Ripe, chunky and slightly static is how to describe the nose on this prime gran reserva from a benchmark year. A flush lush palate shows no gaps and is full from side to side. Baked plum and berry flavors are ripe to the max without tasting sweet, while this darkens up and tastes more savory on the finish. Drink from 2020–2035. MICHAEL SCHACHNER

Good glyceric density, running gently down the sides of the glass, shows great volume. On the nose we have aromas of ripe, dark fruit, spicy aromas of black pepper, mineral hints of graphite, and very fresh reminders of thick undergrowth which make the pituitary gland fall in love with it so that they wrap themselves around us. Then mentholated nuances, rosemary and some smokiness from the ageing in finest quality oak appear. On the palate it reveals smooth, soft tannin, elegant with very good acidity which gives it balance. Hints of liquorice appear and pepper is again present. A very long, elegant wine, with an up-front character and easy-to-drink. You can pair this wine with strong red meat or game, or failing that enjoy it on its own.

Grape Variety: 70% Tempranillo and 30% Graciano

Very intense, black-cherry colour almost opaque, dense robe and purple hues. It looks very young with little sign of evolution. Sensations of concentration and depth, with loads of nuances which will be heightened by the bottle ageing, and which will become more marked with the passing of time. Sensations of fruit to the fore, recalling red fruit and small, very ripe wild berries (blackberries, redcurrants, wild strawberries…), floral (violet petals) and mineral (graphite, iron) notes. Spicy hints of cinnamon and black pepper from the ageing. With the oak very well integrated which displays the high quality of the selected wood. Potent structure on the palate, full-bodied with firm tannins of great elegance and quality, balanced by splendid acidity. It gives a sense of solidity with no cracks or sharp edges, hearty, with great balance and a sensation of freshness. Full of flavour, supple and broad ranging reminders of fruit, minerals and spices in the mouth aromas. The sensations on the nose are reproduced, but perhaps sharper and better defined. A long, full, elegant aftertaste.

Established 1890  Vineyards  75 Ha  Production  37,500 cases

On July 10, 1890, five Basque and Rioja-based vine growers created “Sociedad Vinicola De La Rioja Alta” in what is known as the Haro Station District. This was the beginning of a fascinating business venture in which the only dream of the five founders was to craft and age high quality wines. The European spirit which is so popular today was present in La Rioja and in the winery from the very beginning. The company changed its name to “LA RIOJA ALTA” in 1891.

The company continues to defend the initial idea from back in 1890, which is still present in the wineries, fostering the creative and entrepreneurial spirit of the founders, enormous respect for its history and the original philosophy. This is evident not only in how La Rioja Alta wines are made, but also in the brands, and constant dynamism.

Top #4 wine of 2018 – Wine Spectator
After twenty years studying the vineyard and intensive oenological work, Torre de Oña presents its most innovative and expressive estate wine.

The Torre de Oña winery, part of Grupo La Rioja Alta, S.A., has launched the first vintage (2012) of the Martelo Reserva, its new Rioja Alavesa wine.

Idyllic surroundings. A silent sea of vineyards. An allegorical setting. The Torre de Oña winery is located in one of the most exclusive and privileged regions of the Rioja Alavesa subzone, part of the Rioja D.O.Ca., where the best wineries and vineyards of this recognised winemaking area are located.

The particular geographical characteristics of the area are worth noting. Our vineyards are watched over by the Cantabria Range which acts as a protective barrier in the path of wind and the cold from the north, 630 meters above sea level. This is almost at the altitude limit for growing grapevines in this geographical area, which in good years produces a level of quality that is sublime.

A very special ‘Martelo vineyard’ which is also difficult to manage, as the quality of the cultivated grapes depends largely on weather conditions throughout the growth cycle. Thus, we will only produce Martelo with Very Good or Excellent years; those that we internally identify as ‘Martelo Vintages’.

Grape Variety: 95% Tempranillo, 5% Mazuelo, Garnacha and even Viura

It stands out for its ruby-red intensity. Clean and bright, it shows a marked garnet-red rim. The nose reveals very intense red fruit, raspberries, cherries and cranberries, enveloping balsamic and spicy aging notes: vanilla, liquorice, dark chocolate and cloves. Outstanding freshness and balance in the mouth, coupling a pleasant acidity with silky, fatty tannins that give it a good structure and a pleasant mouthfeel. Long, well-balanced aftertaste, promising great persistence over time as it ages in the bottle.

Founded in 1957 by Guillermo Eguren, Sierra Cantabria is nestled in the heart of San Vicente de la Sonsierra, a town of great winemaking tradition, situated in a unique location between the River Ebro and the Sierra Cantabria mountain range.

The Sierra Cantabria mountain range (1,200 m of altitude) and the river Ebro (350m), created a special microclimate with Mediterranean and Continental characteristic, providing mild winters and gentle summers, unique for vine cultivation.

On the other hand, the summer thermal jump (intense heat during the day with fresh night temperatures) creates an increase in the level of polyphenols, normally associated with excellent quality wines.

Founded in 1998 by the Eguren family, the objective of this cellar, carved in the cold rock, in the very depths of the vineyards, is to produce great wines that represent the intrinsic characteristics and personality that the union of climate, soil and grapevine varieties determines. Viñedos de Páganos is a modern winery located in the medieval village of Laguardia, which arises in the Rioja Alavesa subarea, close to 600 meters in altitude, an environment surrounded by dolmens, archaeological sites, chapels and ancient medieval churches.

The cellar is surrounded by the vineyards of El Puntido, a tenuoust slope of 25 hectares oriented toward the south, trellised on espalier planted in 1975 with Tempranillo variety on a clay-loam soil with a subsoil of sandstone. Thanks to a limited yield and a careful artisan harvest El Puntido wine is produced. La Nieta is very near, a small plot of 1.75 hectares in a loamy and shallow soil in which the Tempranillo variety is also planted. It has a poorer soil quality than in El Puntido and a totally different microclimate. In this plot after forcing the vine to a low vigour and a natural production, fruit of a high quality is obtained, with which the wine La Nieta will be produced.

Established 1988  Production 450,000 bottles

Bodega Fernández Cervera Hermanos SL belonged to a family related to the ship-building business for which wine was more a hobby than a true business venture.

In 1988, La Rioja Alta, S.A. was looking for somewhere to branch out into new wine-making fields in Galicia. It acquired a majority interest in the business, and soon was able to buy the entire company, changing the name to Lagar de Fornelos, S.A.

This is a small but welcoming winery. It has the capacity to process 700,000 kilos of grapes, equivalent to 450,000 bottles per year, 50% of which are exported to the United Kingdom, Mexico, Germany, Switzerland, the United States and other countries such as Japan and Venezuela. Located in the village of Fornelos; its pink ivy-covered facade can be seen from the road. The coziest corner is the dining-tasting room in the old part of the house, with an impressive old stone and wooden wine press. The river Tamuxe flows by the rear of the house and summer days are enhanced by the cries of the local children who come to bathe. There are ducks, trout and minks.

The ancient stone wine press symbolises this winery, an example of the hard work and suffering involved in making wine in the past. Fortunately, it is now a museum piece. But its likeness can be found on our labels and engraved on the bottles.

“Best Seven Spanish White Wines”

Bright, pure and rich: The 7 best Spanish white wines
“This is a delicious Albariño that’s lively and focused with zesty grapefruit and lemon flavours, a bit of pithiness and a keen citrusy finish.” – Jamie Goode

“The best value for money whites”
by Christelle Guibert

Weekday Wines, Decanter magazine November

“The very fashionable Albariño grape is at the heart of this bright, aromatic white, which has notes of peach, ripe melon and pineapple. Very textbook in style, the characters found on the nose are mirrored on a fairly dense palate. This shows complexity, with a creamy sensation on the finish” – Christelle Guibert

Pago de los Capellanes is located near the village of Pedrosa de Duero, nestled deep in the heart of the Ribera del Duero region of Spain. The name of Pago de los Capellanes means land of the chaplains, which comes from the area where the estate is located. In the past, the estate had a mere thousand vines, grown in the traditional gobelet style. The Rodero-Villa family, complemented by a group of exceptional wine professionals, have followed their personal approach to making wine. This has brought into being today’s Pago de los Capellanes estate, fulfilling a dream that began in 1980. Presently, more than 250 acres of vineyards, grown in the modern style of trained vines, surround the winery. We exclusively work with Tempranillo grape as we think that it shows perfectly the essence of Ribera del Duero. All the wines marketed under the Pago de los Capellanes brand are made with the same care; red wines show their individual character, the result of tranquil aging, care and patience.

The vintage started with a winter that had good groundwater reserves. The spring was warm and dry until well into the month of June, when there were intense rainfall at the beginning of the blooming. A summer with some well spread out storms gave way to a very dry autumn. The harvest was slightly ahead of the usual dates, but the analytical and organoleptic features, and the balance of the berries, were ideal. Thus enabled the harvest to take place at the optimal ripening time. The wines from this vintage, which was classified as excellent, have a good colour intensity, significant fruity notes on the nose and a high tannic potential in the mouth, with sweet tannins that indicate the good phenolic ripening of the berries. A vintage reminiscent of the exceptional 2005 vintage.

An intense Cardinal purple colour with a great garnet-coloured rim. It exhibits the rich depth typical of Tinto Fino grapes and dense, abundant tears. The aromas of flowers and fresh fruits fill the senses, later giving away to tones of vanilla, cocoa, roast and new leather. Hints of sandalwood, spices, tobacco and liquorice create a lasting and persistent memory. The wine enters the mouth elegantly, with body, filling the palate with freshness. As it moves forward, it is powerful and complex and leaves a long, intense aftertaste of very ripe grape and round, noble tannins.

Alejandro Fernández is the living image of a self-made man. He had always dreamt of setting up his own winery and making great red wines while he was making a living doing different jobs as a young man. Following on from the family tradition learnt from his father, Alejandro would make wine each year from the grapes of his small vineyards. However, he had to wait until 1972 to have his own real winery. It had a small 16th century winepress where almost the whole process was conducted. Ten years would pass before the Tinto Pesquera winery would look more or less the same as it does today. The ancient winepress, however, still survives to this day.

The first years were not easy. It was common practice at the time to uproot vines and substitute them for irrigated crops like beetroot. However, Alejandro carried on planting vines and was the first to introduce the espalier system (in the “Viña Alta” vineyard) to the area. Some even took him for a madman. But time would put things in their place. More than 200 hectares of beautiful vineyards today supply the winery. Some vines grow on gravel terraces and others on high tablelands (like the “Llano Santiago” vineyard at over 1,000 metres above sea level). All of them provide their nuances to the renowned Pesquera red wines.

The prestigious Arzuaga Navarro winery is located in the village of Quintanilla de Onésimo, east of Valladolid, in the western end of Ribera Del Duero. The town of Quintanilla de Onesimo is considered to be Ribera Del Duero’s “Golden Mile”, home to such Spanish wine superstars as Vega Sicilia, Pingus and Viña Mayor. The winery rises near the Duero river, alongside the historical Castilian road which connects Valladolid to Soria. Built completely in stone, solid and rustic, reflecting a monastic spirit in its arches and towers and, in its centre, a bell tower crowned by a weather vane. The reassuring sturdiness of the stone exterior and the warmth of elm wood within provide a welcoming atmosphere to prepare the visitor for the experience of these special wines.

Founded by Florentino Arzuaga in the beginning of the 1990s. Florentino Arzuaga bought the estate first and later acquired the vines, the winery and, finally, the wine. Florentino aims to produce red wines with structure, elegant, assertive and complex at the same time. Florentino Arzuaga has the tenacious spirit of an entrepreneur coupled with an aesthetic and perfectionist sensitivity. He is modest and softly spoken man, yet has been capable, in a very short time, of placing the red that bears his family name on the most sumptuous wine lists.

Alejandro Fernández discovered an abandoned hillside on the banks of the River Duero in the mid-1980s that seemed to bring together the ideal conditions to become one of the best vineyards of the region. Cims de Porrera was founded in 1996 with the aim of exploiting the full potential of the vineyards of the village of Porrera in the Priorat Qualified Designation of Origin (QDO). Some of the vineyards are over 100 years old and consist mainly of the Carignan variety, which is highly prized for its color, tannins and excellent coupage. Carignan, along with the light and fruity Garnatxqa variety, constitute the two main native grape varieties of Priorat.

Cims de Porrera and Solanes are made in the old cooperative winery, where the facilities have been modernized to exploit the full potential of the district’s unique vineyards. The grapes from the different plots are vinified separately according to their location and orientation, thus enabling the production of wines of a strong personality which are a testament to the expression and wealth of the Porrera vineyards.

A complex wine, vigorous and genial too, most pleasurable, and not put on the market until it has matured for at least three or four years in bottle and achieved a good integration of that complexity and polished tannins. It is lively and intense in colour, of medium depth, and mature and fresh in aromas, classic in fact, as we pointed out at the beginning. The ripeness of the red fruit and wild berries is accompanied by subtle liquorice notes and touches of dampness, of undergrowth, making it a wonderfully easy wine. Its freshness invites us to take another sip, to discover greater complexity with some interesting black pepper and balsamic notes.

The Eguren family fell in love with this land more than 15 years ago, seduced by its pre-phylloxera vines, deep roots vineyards meticulously chose to translate the minerality of the soils in powerful and elegant reds. And our love for Toro remains unchanged.

Founded in 2007 by the Eguren family, five wines are elaborated in the cellar: Romanico, Almirez, Victorino, Alabaster and Teso La Monja, the most exclusive project that takes the name of the winery. The deep roots of the old vine Tinta de Toro grape translate the pure minerality of the soil into powerful yet elegant red wines.

El Vínculo Winery came about to materialize Alejandro Fernández’s dream: to make a great wine in La Mancha. After long journeys across the region, he finally found what he was seeking, that is, good and old Tempranillo vines which were very well adapted to local conditions.

Should the plants be well cared for and selected and vine performance be measured, that great La Mancha wine envisaged by Alejandro might become a reality.

That was the starting point of Alejandro’s last – unless for the time being – remarkable project. A lovely and typical La Mancha building, nearly the Windmills of Campo de Criptana, next to the former train station, has been renovated and reconverted in a modern winery. It was designed to make only limited quantities of top-quality wine. Its name - El Vínculo – is homage to the old family winery located in the Douro area. The first vintage, that of 99, was launched in December 2001, after undergoing malolactic fermentation and ageing 16 months in oak barrel plus 6 more in bottle.

In 1997, Florentino Arzuaga arrives in Toledo attracted by the olive oil world, which reaches its maximum expression in the Montes de Toledo region. The elaboration of the olive oil started after acquiring 150 Ha olive trees. He arrived in Malagon looking for new lands to add more character and personality to the oil. It was there where he found some suitable lands for the plantation, not for olive trees but for vines. This is the “Finca La Solana”, a one-piece property, in whose center the winery would be located, surrounded by the vines whose production is assigned to Pago Florentino.

Six generations devoted to caring for wine, love of work well done, and close monitoring of the vineyard. A long history for the oldest Rueda winery that has successfully adapted to new times while respecting the legacy of over a century of experience. Wine is created in the vineyard. It is the grape that marks the splendour of a Vinos Sanz wine. It is good care and prayers, the patient wait for the vine to sprout and land that is hale and hearty but hard on the vine which makes the difference. Terroir wine shaped by climate, soil and man that makes for elegant drinking.

In the 21st century, faced with new challenges such as the steady increase of our winery’s international presence, to address these challenges, Vinos Sanz is preparing an architectural project to build a new winery in the heart of Rueda. This project will combine their traditional tastes with cutting edge architecture, technology and amenities. Vinos Sanz has always played a leading role in the national and international promotion of Spain’s great white wines.

The Diez Siglos winery is a relatively young project, although it’s also one with extensive background. It was born in 2009 thanks interest from a group of people who love both wine and the land where they live, who have a clear desire to keep alive the ages-old legacy of one of Spain’s most exciting grape varieties: Verdejo. A group of 65 vine growers who know and love the land, and who, day by day, care for it and work to obtain grapes of incredible quality. Moreover, they’ve brought high-profile experts on board in order to produce high-quality wines, using winery controls and today’s most cutting-edge technology; wines that, over the course of their short lives, are already growing in importance and gaining recognition at both national and international level.

The Rueda Designation of Origin (D.O. Rueda) benefits from natural resources that are very good for producing high-quality wines, and is an area that specialises in the production of white wines that have achieved broad international recognition. Work has been done for several years to recognise and protect the indigenous grape variety Verdejo.

The winery is equipped with the most advanced winemaking technology to produce our wines. However, we always say that there is no reason why technology can’t go hand in hand with our respect for tradition. Inertised stainless steel vats with controlled temperatures where we produce over 3 million litres; fully automated bottling plant, logistics facilities, etc.

Diez Siglos belongs to the Rueda Designation of Origin and meets the regulatory board’s quality requirements as regards the control of vineyard planting, control of yields by plots, harvest control (health, origin and variety), wine yields from each winery, production and ageing methods and times, as well as the qualification of the wines that are going to be bottled.

The Canto Real shows everything that has led to the Verdejo grape in recent years to great success. On the nose, apricot and gooseberry, green apple and a little passion fruit spoil, underlaid with the scent of fresh herbs. One of Spain’s finest estates, the still under-the-radar Bodegas Alto Moncayo is a joint venture of Dan Phillips, Jorge Ordoñez, Chris Ringland, Jose Miguel San Martin, Bodegas Borsao and others. The top wine is their old vine 100% Grenache cuvée called Alto Moncayo. Five generations of vignerons have farmed over 210 acres of primarily old vine Grenache at Alto Moncayo, a wine that is produced from incredibly low yields of 500 grams of grape bunches per vine.

It is located in the town of Bulbuente (Zaragoza) Spain and the Denominacion Campo de Borja. 62 hectares (153.2 acres) of old clone Garnacha vines are planted on the hillside vineyards oriented to the southwest. The winery possesses very unique soils of red clay (indicative of being rich in iron) mixed with red slate. Because of its hillside location the soils are very poor in organic matter and shallow. A few sites have calcareous soil. Night time during the summer brings cool temperatures to moderate the growing season and there is scant rainfall. The youngest vines of Alto Moncayo are 35 years old and the oldest vineyards are over 90 years old. Their focus is exclusively on Garnacha.

Grape Variety: 100% Garnacha
Alto Moncayo's mega Garnacha is this smoky, roasted smelling monster. Aromas of plum and currant are straight from the smoker, while this feels full and massive but tempered by acidity. Resiny oak flavors of clove and campfire are stronger than the wine’s plum and berry notes, while this tastes savory and extremely woody on the finish. Drink through 2022. MICHAEL SCHACHNER

Simple floral aromatic from the first, than go into oak notes, but taste is not bad one. Full-bodied, very nice minerals, long aftertaste of cashew nuts and orange peel. Taking into consideration its price - cool just as table wine for everyday.

Hermann Donnhoff, one of Germany’s top Riesling producers, is located in the commune of Oberhauser in Nahe. The family has been producing wines for more than 200 years. Helmut Donnhoff started his first vintage in 1971 at the age of 22, with 4 hectares of vines, and has grown the estate into a 25-hectare winery today. One of Germany’s most celebrated wine producers, Helmut is without doubt considered a living legend. “Most people in wine today make it for business. I make it for me, myself”, he said.

Donnhoff’s vineyards are planted with 80% Riesling, 20% Pinot Blanc and Pinot Gris, with vines of 15 to 60 years old. Niederhauser Hermannshohle is their most famous vineyard, a site rich in slate and volcanic rock, and wines produced are the equivalence of a Grand Cru. Another famous vineyard is Oberhauser Brucke, also dominated by grey slate, but are more well known for their Riesling Spatlese and Einswein. Other vineyards include Norheim Kirschheck, Norheim Dellchen, Schlossbockelheim Felsenberg and Schlossbockelheim Kupfergrube.

Oberhauser Leistenberg Riesling Kabinett 2017
Grape Variety: 100% Riesling
The fine balance of apple and peach fruit and cool minerality speaks of a finesse and true elegance that few wines can match. The wine is concentrated, and very long, and without an ounce of fat. It is so light on its feet that the “Kabinett” label is not misleading, despite the much higher ripeness. Delicious.

Oberhauser Leistenberg Riesling Kabinett 2018

Grape Variety: 100% Riesling

Steep, southeasterly facing slope with grey clay slate soil. The morning sun dries the grapes, keeping them healthy; while the afternoon sun is not so direct, allowing the grapes to ripen for a very long time without becoming overripe. A perfect vineyard for Kabinett wines! Fermented and matured in stainless steel vats and large oak barrels. Riesling wines with well-defined, spicy fruit, very elegant with a wonderful balance between fine fruit sweetness and firm acidity.

Niederhauser Klamm Riesling Kabernet 2018

Grape Variety: 100% Riesling

Mineral, floral hints in the nose. On the palate, the Dönnhoff Niederhäuser Klamm Riesling Kabinett is beautifully juicy, revealing aromas of ripe yellow peach, sweet citrus and flint. The wine feels wonderfully harmonious and balanced with all residual sweetness, makes a full-bodied and elegant impression. Very pure and delicate in the long finish. An impressive premiere.

Niederhauser Hermannshohle Riesling Auslese Goldkapsel 2007

Grape Variety: 100% Riesling

Very minerally, pure and lifted nose, but underneath this very well defined character there is a depth of sweet, dried, slightly candied fruits. The palate is hugely impressive, supple and textured, building through the midpalate, showing great depth. It carries flavours of lime and melon, and it always displays a fresh style and deep mineral core despite the wine’s rich and fleshy substance. Put simply, this is fabulous.

Niederhauser Hermannshohle Riesling Auslese Goldkapsel 2011 $ 188.00

Grape Variety: 100% Riesling

Fresh orange with its candied rind; white peach jelly with piquancy of pit fruits; buddleia and lilac; passion fruit, nut pastes and vanilla cream add to the luscious allure of this remarkable libation. A faint aura of truffle and musk emerges with airing – no doubt pointing toward the extremely late picking of by then relatively mature yet still fine botrytis. Dynamically multidimensional, yet sharing with its Brucke counterpart a soothing sense of harmony, this almost endlessly fascinating as well as endlessly lingering wine deserves to be followed for three decades.

The winery Dr. Wehrheim has produced high quality dry wines since 1920. Traditional grape varieties which grow on unique sites have been vinified in the cellar of the historic Art Nouveau farmyard for four generations. Karl-Heinz and Franz Wehrheim are known for the development of expressive wines, in which the taste of the distinctive regional features and the Terroir can be experienced with each sip. With their work in the vineyard and the cellar Karl-Heinz and his son Franz strive to highlight the original, natural characteristics of their wines.

The Dr. Wehrheim winery emphasizes the natural features of their wines and thus creates wines with a unique character. The vines benefit from the superb microclimate of Southern Palatinate and thrive on the individual soils of our exceptional vineyards. The Dr. Wehrheim winery uses the benefits of these unique Terroirs in order to grow high quality, award winning wines. Our wines persuade through distinct grape varietal aromas, vivid tataric acidities and outstanding ageing potential. Depending on the grape variety, oak flavors complete the natural aromas. The Dr. Wehrheim winery farms organically and produces mostly dry wines. We focus primarily on Riesling, Weisser Burgunder and Pinot Noir (Spätburgunder) varietals. In addition, our grape variety portfolio includes Pinot Gris, Chardonnay, Silvaner, Muskateller, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon.
